Anti-Inflation Bill Gets Flat 'No' From Congress

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—The Republicans said "No" tonight to President Truman's demand for price controls and other powers to halt rising prices.

GOP Fumbles Ball on Advice From Dewey

WASHINGTON, July 27 (P)—Just what advice did Thomas E. Dewey give to Congress?

Senator Robertson (R-Wyo.) came out of a meeting of the GOP Senate policy committee and told reporters that Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, had advised congressional leaders to "stay around a week or so and then go home."

General Asks Segregation In Lower Levels of Army; Differs With Truman

FORT KNOX, Ky., July 27 (P)—Segregation of white and Negro units in the lower levels of the Army was advocated here today by Gen. Omar Bradley, the Army's chief of staff.

General Bradley told a news conference, however, that he favored combining these units to form larger organizations, such as battalions and divisions.

President Truman yesterday issued an executive order establishing a committee on "equality of treatment and opportunity" in the armed services.

THE ORDER DECLARED it the policy of the President that there shall be equality of treatment and opportunity for all persons in the armed services without regard to race, color, religion or national origin.

General Bradley, here with other ranking officers for a three-day seminar on the training of recruits under the new military expansion program, told his news conference that it will take 60 years to house the Army properly at the present rate of building.

In reply to criticism of the army caste system, the general declared: "Sure we've got a caste system. Do you know of any major industry?"

Community Camp Officials Inspect Smoking Ruins of Craft Lodge

Blackened, smoking ruins are all that remain of the Pottstown Community camp craft lodge after a fire of undetermined origin swept through the structure early yesterday morning. As H. Roden Welker (left), camp director, looks on, Carl Herbine, a member of the Spicer Employees Aid association camp committee, points to the tangled wreckage in which more than $1000 worth of tools and craft supplies were destroyed.

Members of the association were clearing the wreckage all day yesterday preparatory to the construction of a new lodge for the camp. The 109 children at the camp were not endangered by the flames.

Democrats and Labor Back Truman; GOP Cries 'Politics'

WASHINGTON, July 27 (P)—President Truman's address to the special session of the 80th Congress touched off a nationwide storm of jeers and cheers tonight.

Backing the President were many Democrats and many labor heads. Critical were most Republicans, Wall Street and business, and a few rebel Dixiecrats.

At the center of the storm were the President's proposals for cost of living controls, his housing program, and civil rights.

Democratic comments: "Excellent message... admirably presented... a comprehensive challenge... effective and courageous... unbiased."

The Republicans said: "Purely political... height of sophistry... demagoguery... full of inaccuracies... unworkable... last desperate effort."

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential candidate, made no comment. But his office said he will keep in close touch with GOP congressional leaders throughout the session.

U. S. DISPLAYS STRENGTH IN AIR

Sends Jets on Flights To Impress Germans; Reds Boost Fighter Mite

BERLIN, July 27 (P)—The United States Air Force demonstrated its growing air strength to Germans in the American zone today by flying jet fighters over several cities.

The German press reported at the same time that the Russians were substantially increasing the force of fighter planes, including jets, in the Soviet zone of Germany surrounding Berlin.

The three western commanders in Berlin talked at length on how to combat the Russian drive to turn the city's police force over to the Communists.

By seeking to override the city government's authority to fire the Russian-appointed police chief, the Communists faced Berliners with the prospect of two police forces and two police chiefs.

THE AMERICAN, British and French commanders Col. Frank Howley, Maj. Gen. E. O. Herbert and Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval, met for more than three hours and dispatched a letter on the police crisis to Berlin's mayor, Frau Louise Schroeder. The commanders would not say what was in the note.

American and British cargo planes, meanwhile, flew new record tonnages to western Berlin despite posting of new Russian warnings of maneuvers by fighters in air corridors traveled by the transports.

Royersford Autoist Faces Court As Topsy Driver; Inquest Delayed

Following a hearing before Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus, of the Seventh ward, on charges of drunken driving, John Lackman, 48, of Chester, was held under $500 bail for court yesterday morning.

Unable to provide his bond at the hearing, he was returned to his cell in borough hall.

Lackman, whose truck killed 7-year-old Garrie Lee White, Spring City nine days ago, was arrested Monday afternoon by Patrolmen Paul Galloway and Michael Shanta after a long chase. He had nothing to say in his defense at the hearing.

THE ROYERSFORD MAN was scheduled to appear last night at an inquest into the boy's death before Chester County Coroner Cooper T. Bishop Jr. Because Lackman was unable to post bail, the inquest was postponed.

Spring City Police Chief John Hanebury said, "It won't be held until the principal is available."

Flames Destroy Crafts Lodge at Community Camp

A fire of undetermined origin which swept through the craft lodge at the Pottstown Community camp early yesterday morning razed the building completely, destroying more than $1000 worth of tools and craft supplies.

The loss was not insured. Most of the 109 children at the camp slept through the fire since the nearest cabin was more than 200 yards from the location of the lodge.

H. Roden Welker, camp director, said: At no time were any of the boys or girls in any danger, he added.

Firemen who fought the flames which destroyed the lodge were outspoken in their praise of the training which kept the youngsters out of danger.

Titus Edginger, chief engineer of the Friendship Hook and Ladder company, Boyertown, declared: "Those kids were wonderful. The few that were awake never moved past their cabin doors. We never had to worry about them getting hurt."

The blaze was discovered at 5 o'clock by Assistant Director Eli M. Funnell from the nearby staff house. Funnell only long enough to shout the alarm. Funnell ran past the burning building to the office to phone for help.

Before he could complete his call, however, the flames burned through the lines which were strung past the lodge. Although the operator had not had time to get the number of the camp, she had heard enough to know the approximate location of the fire and notified the Stonersville Fire company.

MEANWHILE, THE camp counselors were awakened. Manning garden hoses and forming bucket brigades, they confined the flames to the lodge, preventing them from spreading to the staff house and a nearby garage.

Within only the approximate location of the camp to go by, the Stonersville company made one false trip before arriving at 5:20 o'clock.

It was necessary to run their pumper to Manatawny creek to obtain water. Approximately 1400 feet of hose was stretched from the creek to the scene of the fire.

While the firemen played their hoses on the flames, additional calls were made to the Friendship Hook and Ladder and the Keystone Fire companies of Boyertown. The Friendship company ran portable pumping equipment to the creek to assist in extinguishing the blaze.

New Iron Lung Earmarked for Use in Borough

Pottstown soon will have another iron lung, and for six days beginning this morning, borough residents will have an opportunity to see it in action.

A trailer, bearing the portable life-saving apparatus, and sponsored by Pottstown Amvets and auxiliary, Post 23, will be situated on the north side of High street near Penn.

The $1500 respirator, at the close of the six-day demonstration period, will be turned over to some worthy organization not yet named. The public has been invited to see the equipment. Live models will be used for demonstrations.

THE PORTABLE equipment is guaranteed for two years' continuous operation, weighs but 85 pounds, can be operated manually, by house current or by car battery, and contains three sizes of chest shields suitable for infants up to 325-pound men. In the event of an epidemic, the manufacturers rush five additional lungs for service in the area, free of charge.

Invaluable for polio cases or drownings, or whenever inducement of artificial breathing is required, this iron lung fits compactly into two carrying cases and can be easily transported anywhere.

The local Amvets group will provide funds to make up the cost of the equipment for any (Continued on Page Three)

Family Pet Crushed Under Auto

Two young sisters and their little brother didn't eat any breakfast yesterday morning. They weren't hungry. Aching sobs had ruined their appetites.

For Blackie, their beloved tomcat, had been discovered dead in the morning meal. His head had been crushed under the cruel wheels of a hit-run driver's auto.

It was Clara Ann Brandel, 15, who was the first of the family to see the crushed form of the household pet lying in the street at Laurel and Evans streets.

She and her sister, Frances, 14, her brother Louis, 10, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandel, live at 347 Laurel street.

Ever since Clara Ann got Blackie from a local restaurant four months ago, she and her brother and sister have adopted him as their special pet.

Blackie was a friendly kind of a cat—more sociable than the average of his species. He visited neighbors' lots and often played with a kitten, Whitey, also owned by the Brandels.

YESTERDAY THE neighbors and Whitey joined the Brandels in lamenting their lost companion. A neighbor first saw Blackie's broken body lying in the street. A telephone call broke the tragic news.

Fingerprint Found on Weapon Used to Slay Illinois Gangster

PEORIA, Ill., July 27 (AP)—Solution of the slaying of mobster Bernie Shelton appeared to hinge tonight on a blurred but discernable fingerprint found on the death weapon.

Shelton, 50, was shot from ambush Monday as he left a tavern two blocks west of the Peoria city limits. The single slug fired from a powerful deer rifle by the assassin ripped through his chest from one side to the other. His brother also was slain gangland style less than a year ago.

Sheriff's deputies found the rifle in a hillside thicket about 100 feet from the spot where Shelton dropped. Nearby they found a .351 caliber shell casing.

CHIEF DEPUTY Sheriff William Littell said today the print found on the gun would be sent to the FBI in Washington.

Shelton, member of a prohibition era gang which wrote a bloody page in Southern Illinois history, was drilled as he prepared to enter his parked car. The impact spun him around. He fell on his back on the parking apron mortally wounded.

"They shot me from the timber," Shelton gasped to Alex Ronitis, a bartender who ran to help him. The wounded man died en route to a hospital.

Bernie, former Wayne county bootlegger, was the second of the five Shelton brothers to be plugged from ambush in less than a year. The last Oct. 23, Carl Shelton, 59, was killed near Fairfield, Ill.

Italian Economy Is Threatened as New Strikes Loom

ROME, July 27 (AP)—New strikes threatened the Italian economy tonight as eleven-hour peacekeepers strove to avert the break-up of the Italian General Confederation of Labor.

Labor leaders representing moderate and Republican elements in the 7,000,000-member General Labor Confederation (CGIL) went before the New Catholic Workers' association and urged them not to quit the confederation because of the use of "political strikes" by the CGIL's Communist leaders.

But the decision apparently was irrevocable. Christian Democrat leaders said the past week the "revolutionary" strike called June 14 after an attempt on the life of Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti violated the terms of labor's unity pact. The Communist-dominated CGIL executive committee today read the Christian Democrats out of the organization.

WORKERS OF the bank of Italy, run by the government, announced meanwhile they would quit for 24 hours tomorrow because of "indifference" to their demands for more money.

Milan dispatches said workers had seized the Castiglione Copper products factory after it laid off 700 men, asserting banks would not allow the company credit to meet payrolls. The Breda plant at Milan said it wanted to lay off 2200 workers.

There were, however, a few bright spots.

1. A month-old oil strike seemed near solution.

2. A strike in the Isotta-Fraschini automobile plant over lay-offs was reported settled with an agreement to send the men to school for six months to train them for other work.

3. CGIL and he employers' industrial confederation were talking "amicably" about nationwide wage level adjustments.

4. Unemployment was down in June, for the first time this year.

Togliatti Much Improved; Ordered to Take Rest

ROME, July 27 (AP)—Doctors tonight advised Palmiro Togliatti, wounded Italian Communist leader, to take a long rest.

Togliatti was shot two weeks ago by a would-be assassin. A bedside bulletin said he was "notably improved" and that his discharge from the hospital is imminent.

The Communist leader did not say what he plans to do when he leaves.

ENTIRE PROGRAM MAY BE BLOCKED AS ANTI-POLL TAX COMES UP FIRST

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—Republican leaders tied a hard knot tonight in President Truman's legislative program by announcing that an anti-poll tax bill will be the first order of business in the Senate.

Their announcement was equivalent to shouting: "Filibuster ahead!" A closely-knit band of Southern Senators is pledged to fight that and all the rest of Mr. Truman's civil rights proposals by any means at their command.

The filibuster quite possibly may begin tomorrow, with a series of time-consuming motions to "amend" and "correct" the official journal of today's proceedings.

THE PROCESS of amendment and correction conceivably could be stretched out for weeks. Once a Senator has the floor, he is not constrained to confine his remarks to the matter at hand, but may range as far as his wit, his persistence and his inclination permit.

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Republican policy committee, told reporters of the majority party's decision to take up the anti-poll tax bill after a meeting with other Republican leaders. He said the bill may be called up tomorrow, or, if not then, Thursday.

The measure would prohibit collection of a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting in Federal elections. It already has passed the House.

Although President Truman did not single out the poll tax bill by name in his message to Congress today, he urged the enactment of the list of civil rights proposals he called for the past February. That list included it as well as measures designed to prohibit racial and religious discrimination in employment, and to make lynching a Federal offense.

IF THE SOUTHERNERS seize on their first opportunity to talk the measure to death, they can begin tomorrow by debating the accuracy of the journal of today's Senate proceedings. They can "move" to correct and amend it. According to the staple Senate parliamentary doctrine, such motions are not subject to the cloture (debate limitation) rule.

To apply cloture requires a two-thirds majority, which Mr. Truman—himself a former Senator—contends could be obtained in a show-down. But according to the general interpretation of the rules, cloture can be applied only against a bill or a resolution, not a motion.

The Republican strategy put them in the position of saying to the President: You asked for a civil rights bill; here is one; it is the only part of your legislative program that is ready for instant Senate consideration; can we help it if some of the members of your own party try to talk it to death?

The net effect of their move, however, may be to block his entire legislative program, including the anti-inflation and housing bills on which he laid so much stress.

The Journal-amending device which the anti-Truman Democrats may use is possible only at the opening of a new legislative day, following an adjournment—not a recess—of the Senate. The Senate adjourned today, so it could be used tomorrow.

The Southerners, who have perfected a tight organization, have agreed informally to let Senators Stennis (D-Miss), Maybank (D-SC) and Stewart (D-Tenn) lead off any time killing debate.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), is leader of the opposition to Mr. Truman's civil rights program.

Charles B. Vose, president of the New York Cotton exchange, also opposed the program.

Team Up Against Syria

Dr. Philip Jessup (left), United States deputy to the United Nations and Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik of Russia, teamed up yesterday to lead the opposition against a proposal by Syria to throw the Palestine question before the International Court of Justice. The Syrian proposal was defeated.

Syrian Proposal to Ask Court For Palestine Decision Defeated

LAKE SUCCESS, July 27 (AP)—The Security council refused today to approve a Syrian move to toss the Palestine problem before the International Court of Justice.

The vote on Syria's proposal was six to one, with four abstentions. A majority of seven votes, including all of the big five, was required to pass it.

Britain, China, Syria, Belgium, Argentina and Colombia voted for the Arab proposal; the Soviet Ukraine stood alone against it, and the United States, France, Canada and Russia abstained.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, United States deputy, and Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, led the opposition to the Syrian proposal.

Jessup told the council that the U. S. feared reference to the court would complicate the task of the United Nations mediator in Palestine.

HE WAS BACKED by the Canadian delegate, Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton.

Malik said the general assembly already had decided the case of Palestine; there was no need to refer it to the court. He accused Syria of trying to scuttle the U. N. Palestine partition decision.

Faris El Khouri, Syrian delegate, opened the debate this morning with a pledge that the Arabs would abide by any decision of the International Court of Justice. He said the Arabs wanted justice in the Palestine case.

El Khouri's proposal called for the Security council to ask the court to rule on the status of Palestine at the end of the British mandate.

Dr. Roberto Urdaneta, of Colombia, tacked on an amendment, which El Khouri accepted, saying that the move would not interfere with the mediation efforts in Palestine.

Mahmoud Bey Fawzi, of Egypt, sitting as an interested state in the dispute, backed the Syrian proposal while Aubrey S. Eban, of Israel, urged the council to defeat it.

defied the anti-Communist city government's order dismissing him. He said he not only would remain in office with the Soviet army to back him, but would carry out Russian orders to fire Socialist Johannes Stumm. Stumm is the deputy who had been appointed his successor.

THE GERMAN PRESS speculated Stumm would transfer his headquarters to the western sectors from the Russian-controlled part of Berlin. This would mean establishment of two police departments in the blocked city.

The result would be added chaos in this city of 3,250,000 where the Western Allies stood firm against Russian moves to squeeze them out and incorporate Berlin into the Soviet zone.

SEWER BONDS —

Berlanti faction won with the argument that his firm owned a greater amount and variety of mechanical equipment.

SEARS AND DALY stressed the need for speed.

The stretches of sewer to be laid that are not in the contract already, the borough manager asserted, either already are under construction or will be started soon after the issue is approved.

These sewers that the borough will lay include the stretch on Price street from Wilson street and the borough line, price street residents have been vehement in their demands for action.

After the meeting, the winning bidder said that he would be at work on the job between next Monday and Wednesday, depending on how swiftly the legal details were completed.

THE VOTE ON THE bidders was unanimous, except for George Seals, who said that Jafolla seemed to be low bidder and that Berlanti's advantage in speed might prove useless unless more homes actually were finished soon.

Burgess William A. Griffith, who mildly favored Jafolla, won a victory later in the two-hour meeting when his suggestion for a $150,000 bond issue was accepted after 30 minutes of argument that ended only with Daly rapping on the table and insisting on a showdown vote.

Before the vote, higher figures—ranging from $160,000 to $200,000—were proposed. Favoring these higher figures were Daly, Shaner and Seals, with Ruyak and Griffith leading the opposition.

The high-figure faction argued that eventually more funds would be needed, and that the present low interest rates should be taken advantage of now.

The Burgess won the day by asserting that other bond issues could be floated at little, if any, extra cost, and by repeating that the bond issue should be at a level that the public would accept.

Cub Pack 53 Lays Plans For Outing Tomorrow

Final plans for a track meet and "family cook-out" to be held tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock on the Kenilworth playground, were made at a committee meeting of Cub Pack 53 last night.

For the meet, there will be prizes for each of three ages, in seven events. It will be followed by a doggie roast and marshmallow toast.

In the event of rain, the pack will meet in the recreation room of Emmanuel Lutheran church at 7:30 o'clock for a program of sound films.

CONGRESS REJECTS —

by the opposition in an effort to prevent his other proposals from being carried out.

PRICES CAME first in Mr. Truman's appeal to Congress. Housing came second. He said the need for low-cost homes is desperate.

GOP leaders turned him down on that, too. They said a long-range program "cannot be dealt with at this special session." But they promised "further consideration" of the housing shortage and said "much already has been done" by the 80th Congress to solve it.

At another hearing, Cadmus gave Harold Smith, 362 Chestnut street, the alternative of paying $19.50 in fines and costs or spending 30 days in the Montgomery county jail.

council usually has selected the top-ranking applicant in the civil service examination. It is expected, however, that this method may not be followed in this case, since several councilmen are known to be pressing for the appointment of their favorites to the post.

With the date of the written examinations set for Aug. 27, the appointment of the sergeant by council will not come before its September meeting. The examinations will be given in borough hall at 4:30 p.m.

Applications for the sergeancy are being distributed by the office of Chief of Police James A. Laughhead. Thirteen patrolmen come under the three-year eligibility provision.

THE FIRE was extinguished at approximately 7 o'clock, but firemen remained for another hour or more as a precautionary measure. They were served coffee by the camp cooks during their wait.

Camp routine ran so smoothly, Welker said, that the youngsters were awakened at 7:30 o'clock and had breakfast at 8 o'clock, their usual time. With the exception of craft activities, camp functions will continue to run according to schedule.

Smith was brought before Cadmus on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct after a fight with members of his family. He was unable to pay his fine at the hearing and was returned to borough hall until arrangements were made to pay, or to transport him to the jail.

CI Life Insurance

THE MERCURY announced yesterday that Saturday is the deadline for reinstating National Service Life Insurance without physical examination and going through a lot of governmental red tape. It would certainly seem to every ex-GI's advantage to seize the opportunity.

Nowhere else can a former service man or woman secure insurance for so low a premium, and with the U. S. government in back of it, nowhere else can so sound an insurance organization be found.

Many a veteran had a $10,000 policy while in service and let it lapse upon discharge in favor of a $10,000 policy with a civilian concern. The other day they awoke to the realization that they were paying exactly $17.10 more per month for the civilian policy than for the GI policy.

It required only a few minutes with the courteous, efficient Veterans' Administration to get the GI policy reinstated. And it cost only one month's premium to pay up all the arrears.

If the policy-holder is drawing disability compensation, the government will deduct the premiums from the monthly check, which makes the payments practically painless.

If you were in service and let your GI policy slide, don't let Saturday slip by without at least investigating reinstatement. It will be to your advantage.

Why Meat Is High

THE behavior of farm prices these days is something to behold. Beef on the hoof is bringing as much as 40 cents a pound, good and choice hogs, 30 cents, and farmers get 25 cents a pound or more for their lambs. Those are among the highest livestock prices in history.

At the same time, grain prices have begun to sag. Wheat is down near the government support price and many farmers in the southwest, where grain is piled on the ground for lack of storage and transportation facilities, are selling their harvest at below support levels or are seeking government loans on it. As yet corn prices haven't tumbled as much as they might in the light of this year's excellent crop prospects, but there is talk that they will fall to $1.60 a bushel, the support price level, before the end of the year.

Why this anachronistic picture of a surplus of grains and a short supply of meat?

One does not have to search far for the answer. While wages and personal incomes have been spiralling upwards, livestock numbers have been spiralling downwards.

We are in our fourth year of a downward trend in the cattle cycle. Hog numbers have been reduced to prewar levels, while chicken and turkey flocks have been cut back sharply in the past two years by high feed costs.

With more dollars to be spread among fewer pounds of beef, pork, lamb and poultry than a year ago, the inevitable result is higher prices for meat. Though enraged cries for a "return to OPA" are popular, OPA could do nothing to cause more beef cows to have twin calves or to persuade sows to have more and larger litters of pigs each year.

Especially last year, when the corn crop was short and the government was buying millions of bushels of wheat for Europe and bidding up the price, farmers found it more profitable to sell their grain as grain, rather than put it into feed troughs for livestock and sell it as beef, pork or lamb. In recent years our bumper grain crops have gone to feed the hungry people of the world, rather than to maintaining the livestock population of this country.

But foreign demands on our grain supply are tapering off as European agriculture regains its feet. Instead of a continuing shortage and high grain prices, we seem headed for a grain surplus, something which six short months ago seemed impossible. And with declining grain prices and high meat prices, farmers will bend every effort to raise more meat animals.

Already they are revising upwards their breeding plans for the fall pig crop, but the resulting lard, pork, bacon, hams, etc., will not come to market until the Spring of 1949. The first real effect of this year's larger corn crop will be felt in a substantially larger 1949 Spring pig crop, which won't reach the market until October, 1949, 15 months away.

In the months ahead, therefore, Americans are going to shell out on two counts.

First, they will have to pay high prices for meat.

Second, as taxpayers and consumers, they will be paying to support prices for potatoes, eggs, dried fruits, and probably wheat and corn.

Letters must not be more than 250 words long, of current topics and must not involve personalities. Writers must sign their names and give street address as evidence of good faith but these will be withheld from publication on request. It is a criminal offense to sign another person's name. Poetry, and communications advocating the election of political candidates are not acceptable.

Little Things in Life That Count

To the Editor: In answer to Marie A. ("Can't Delay Club's Progress," Readers Say, July 26):

Those well thought-up phrases have a peculiar odor, and Marie will probably live to regret the day she had the intestinal fortitude to send them to the Readers Say column. After all, they will have some repercussions with the class of people who have the courage to raise large families.

Ask a milkman and grocer who serve both classes which would rather have as his customers. He will tell you without hesitation it's the so-called lower class that pays cash and pays regularly, instead of saying "Charge it."

I personally wouldn't belong to the country club if I were given a life membership. The majority of those people exist, but don't know a thing about living. Give me the little things of life, and I'll mean dirty little kids who run to greet their hard-working daddy when he returns from work.

Half the so-called upper crust won't have children and those who do have them push them on someone else, or rather put them to bed so early they never get to know their fathers at all.

You have definitely stuck your neck out, Marie, and I hope you get your chips clipped.

I hope, too, you may have the opportunity of looking for a home some day and there won't be any around. You'll find out what humiliation really is. You'd be a bad risk for any man to marry, if someone isn't already stuck with you.

South Pottstown A MOTTER

Community Wants Will Triumph

To the Editor: To Marie A. ("Can't Delay Club's Progress," Readers Say, June 26): From the tone of your statement it is very easy to understand that you are one of the "Odious Aristocracy" of Pottstown. (And we are thankful there are not many.)

Perhaps you are even one of the "clan," who claim exemption from taxes in the borough on large real estate holdings and compel the other property owners to carry the entire load of taxes.

It is people like you who help swell the group of followers of men like Henry Wallace and his ilk. Why, I doubt very much if you have ever done a day's work in your life.

Were you or any of your family in the service during the late World War? Do you have any real friends, or do they treat you very nicely while you are within earshot but express their real opinion of you after you have left them?

I believe that Pottstown will, regardless of your opinion and the apparent weak-kneed one-man administration of our borough with its many drones, see to it that the housing shortage is corrected. Corrected with the construction of homes within the reach of the class that is the backbone of any community and the American way of life.

The housing shortage will be taken care of even if we are compelled to place an administration in borough hall composed of real public servants who have the welfare of Pottstown as a whole at heart, and not just that of a favored few.

Pottstown DAILY READER

Need for More Graciousness

To the Editor: This is directed to Marie A. ("Can't Delay Club's Progress," Readers Say, July 26) and her associates who feel that the uncouth, uneducated masses, the parents of all the dirty, horrid, drunken children, cannot be absorbed into dear old Pottstown without invading the sanctity of their holy temples.

Is your mode of life so restricted and so devoid of basic human feeling that you can do nothing better to do than to look down on those who unfortunately keep your kind by the firesides of Brookside? Does your standard of living demand so much that you can't even be gracious enough to support the program for decent housing?

History tells us that Queen Marie Antoinette said, when the masses asked for bread, "Let them eat cake." It is an accepted fact that the gracious queen died.

In closing, without the benefit of subtle implications, and clearly indicative of a low intelligence, may I be so crude as to suggest that you keep your nose out of the air during a storm? Drowning is such a horrible death.

Pottstown HOMESEEKER

'Starched Dress' Type

To the Editor: In answer to Marie A. ("Can't Delay Club's Progress," Readers Say, July 26) only a "low type" character with $$$ could be capable of writing such an asinine letter. Your snide and gall are indicative of someone with intelligence lower than the person you "rapped." Some people keep their mouths closed because they know they are stupid. But you're the type that had to open your mouth to prove it!

As for "hordes of filthy children," perhaps you were the "starched dress" type who never made a mud-pie or buried your toes in dirt. Three cheers for you!! Personally, I'll take the mud-pies. Here's hoping the filthy children you refer to, do not grow up to be as filthy-minded as you are.

Does "Marie A." remember when the "masses" (in khaki) sacrificed their all for her? These people really lived in tents, but they've had their share of it. You try it.

Now, "Miss Prim," if you've blown your horn, please crawl back under your rock with the other slimy objects, and let us normal people live on in our merry way. Like others of the so-called "elite," you, in all probability, have put on the dog for so long that you chase cars in your spare time.

Prosperity Peak Holds Political Significance

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, July 27—The dominant question on Capitol Hill and in both Truman and Dewey camps these days is how long the American people may expect to enjoy the present, postwar level of prosperity.

Although millions may have reason to doubt that the United States has been so blessed in view of the pressure of mounting living costs, which President Truman highlighted so vividly in his address to Congress, there is no question that this country stands like a sunlit, economic peak among the storm clouds which darken the rest of the unhappy world.

SIGNIFICANCE: Aside from the solace or sorrow which the answer may give to hard-pressed civilians as well as the information it may furnish in planning for the days ahead, it has tremendous political significance. For there is no doubt now that the individual voter's bread-and-butter status will influence him next November far more deeply than Truman-Dewey-Wallace arguments, historic party allegiances or foreign difficulties.

The 1948 election will be a "full dinner pail" affair and the presidential candidates are under no illusion on that subject. Political orators, commentators and volunteer advisers who seek to blow up the Russian question into a major campaign issue are only wasting their strength.

The question which the vast majority of voters will ask on that important Tuesday in November will be: "How am I doing?"

PROSPERITY: The private experts, which means the star-gazers of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the National Association of Manufacturers and the more impartial Brookings Institute, are as badly divided as they were in Herbert Hoover's early days in office.

As he argued in his 1928 campaign speeches and during the stock market boom months of 1929, they maintain that we have reached a new, fairly permanent plateau of prosperity that cannot be shaken save by another global war or by a world collapse such as that which contributed to the 1929 depression.

Others insist that the foundations of our present estate are extremely artificial and war-inspired. They believe that today's good times are based on excessive costs of production, the payment of uneconomic wages for a minimum of productive work, the unhealthy use of savings and installment credit as a prop to purchasing power, and federal expenditures at home and abroad which will inevitably force us into a deflationary tailspin.

Then, they predict, will come curtailment of manufacture, unemployment, a deep cut in purchasing power, surpluses, and the same phenomena that we experienced almost twenty years ago.

PATTERN: Both schools agree that the present situation cannot last forever, even with the private and public safeguards of unemployment insurance, Social Security payments, money controls, farm parity benefits etc., which have been erected against a complete, internal collapse. Those are only palliatives.

The optimists, however, believe that wise management on the part of government and industry can prevent any setback from assuming the catastrophic proportions of the 1929 bustup.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ROGER V., 37, came to see me from a neighboring state.

"Dr. Crane, I don't know what's wrong with me," he burst out nervously, "but I'm afraid I am losing my mind."

"Last year I went to the Mayo Clinic, but they couldn't find anything wrong with me. Then I spent three days in a sanitarium for observation during the Summer."

"And now I've been referred to you as a last hope. I am married and have two young children. My wife and I are devoted to each other. But she gets no pleasure out of the marital relation."

"I have lost confidence in myself on the job. I'm afraid of everything and everybody. Last Fall I was offered a $4800 position but turned it down just because I am afraid of myself."

"Dr. Crane, I never used to be this way. What's wrong? Am I really going crazy?"

ROGER ISN'T losing his mind at all. He simply has an emotional conflict, based on his wife's frigidity.

Because he feels that he has been unable to thrill her emotionally as he had hoped to do, he has developed a sexual inferiority complex. He now feels that he is a failure.

Once this type of complex develops, it may start spreading to all other phases of a man's life. So Roger began to fear his ability to do his work at the factory.

Then he turned down a very good position. Roger was afraid.

Not recognizing the specific cause of his problem, he just knew something was wrong with himself. So he journeyed to Rochester, Minnesota, for a thorough overhauling, only to find that his heart, lungs, kidneys, etc., were O. K.

But still he persisted in feeling something was wrong, so he decided it was in his mind. That was when he visited a sanitarium for observation. There they told him his problem involved the relationship with his wife.

But they apparently failed to tell him specifically what to do to remedy the situation. After a 2-hour conference, I handed him that bulletin on "Sex Problems in Marriage" which I have previously offered you readers if you send a 3c stamped envelope, plus a dime.

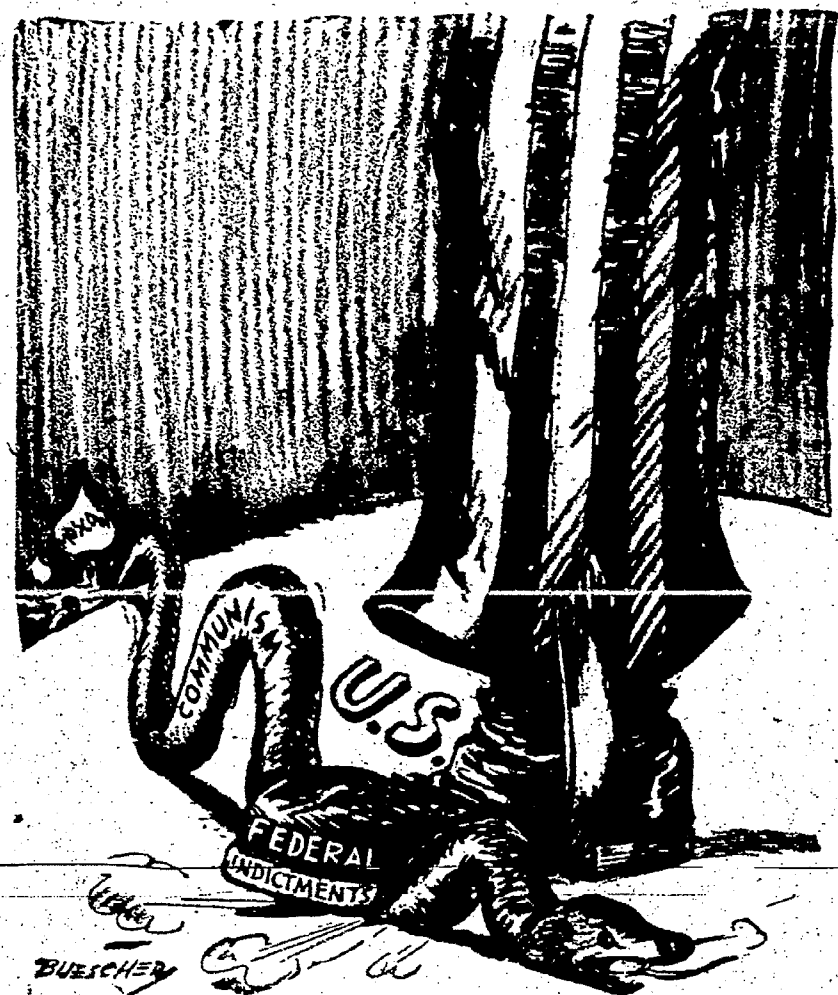

Men usually react in one of the following ways if they suffer from a sexual inferiority complex.

Around the age of 40 to 50, it isn't at all uncommon to see even the best of men go haywire owing to this Ponce de Leon panic.

Either they may begin having affairs with many girls to bolster their masculine ego, or they may flee into invalidism or hypochondria and become obsessed with fear that they have cancer or ulcer or a sluggish bowel, etc.

A third form of reaction is this generalized fear or feeling of failure. Such a man deprecates his own abilities in various other realms, besides the erotic. A wife's responsibility for her husband's business or professional success extends beyond the kitchen and living room, for most divorces, as well as husbands' defeatism complexes, start in the bedrooms.

COMING DOWN HARD

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, July 27 — Raymond Massey, one of the most swiftest actors of all time, has just been added to the already important cast of "The Fountainhead" which boasts Gary Cooper and Patricia Neal. This best-selling novel started its filming life up in Fresno, California last week with the temperature at 114 degrees — and with Cooper operating a pneumatic drill in a granite quarry. He lost some weight which he cannot spare!

Raymond Massey, who doesn't join the rest of the company until its working back in the Hollywood studio, is having himself a pleasant chuckle over missing all the sweltering!

HY GARDNER, of Parade Magazine offers this neat comment to Marlene Dietrich, calling her, "The Whistler's Grandmother." Gee whiz and a few gollys! We caught a showing of "A Foreign Affair" in which Marlene's featured and pardon us while we go stark, staring mad raving over the fun, the dialogue and ALL the performances in that delightful divertissement! "Mickey" Olsen, who happens to be Mickey Rooney's latest girlfriend is testing for a long contract at Fox studio next week. Just his height too. George Raft and beauteous Shirley Ballard, a new two at Ciro's.

VERA ELIAN, the cute little blonde dancer, once featured in some of Sam Goldwyn's super-specials will be similarly bilboarded in the new Marx Brothers fun-fest, "Blondes Up." She'll do a tertiorean satire of Sadie Thompson in "Rain." Meanwhile though, in case you've forgotten, Vera has been giving breath-taking hoofing in "Words and Music" at Metro — and her body-bruising dance-routines for the ballet, "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" for that picture, had gapers around the sets goggle-eyed. But to get back to "Blondes Up"—Dona Massey and Marion Hutton (Betty's sister) are toppers in it—and can you imagine the fun the Marx freres will have chasing THEM around?

LATEST SCUTTLEBUTT says that producer Leland Hayward has Jimmy Stewart's signature on a piece of paper giving Leland Jimmy's services for a Broadway play late in the fall. . . Smiley Burnette, Columbia's cowpoke comic, has planned to Mahouga, Wisconsin, for some fishin'. Reminds us, we have a lengthy post-card from Dinah Shore and George Montgomery from fishin' grounds somewhere in Montana — and now all we need is someone to decipher the handwriting so we can tell how they're doing! . . . Beatrice Pearson, the new femme star of "The Numbers Racket" with John Garfield, is at present ensconced in a George Washington-Slept-Here type of house near New London, Conn., where the movie troupe is shooting location scenes at the moment. The house is 233 years old and has 13 fireplaces.

MODERN MANNERS

Before drinking from a glass, a woman should always use her napkin so lipstick marks will not be left on the glass.

IT HAPPENED TODAY

On July 28, 1914, Austria declared war on Serbia as result of the assassination of Austrian Archduke Francis Ferdinand in Sarajevo, Bosnia, by Gabriel Princip, a Serb extremist. This is Peru's Independence Day. In 1821 General San Martin proclaimed its independence from Spain. Jean Baptiste Camille Corot, French artist, was born on July 28, 1796. An Army bomber crashed into the Empire State building in New York City on this date in 1945, killing 13, injuring 26.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Many happy returns of today to Joe E. Brown, film, radio and stage comedian; to Rudy Vallee, soren and radio-entertainer, and to Dr. Charles W. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn.

Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLAN

Notes On An Electric Typewriter.

SHOWGIRLS AND chorines suddenly have started to adore the drugstore in the Park Central hotel. The reason: The soda jerk, Edward Young, is 6 feet 3 and looks a lot like Gregory Peck. . . Financial note: Bobo Rockefeller beats Winthrop regularly at gin rummy. . . Ronald Regan is taking more than a brotherly interest in Nancy Duke, a bit player at his studio.

Anne Sterling is threatening to cast herself as the Argentine millionaire. The lad's name is Jorge de Mandilla, and she'll vacation in Buenos Aires to meet his family. . . Chic Johnson, of Olsen and Johnson, lost 25 pounds in England because of the food situation. MGM is begging Johnny Johnson to settle that suit with his ex-wife out of court—but Johnny and current wife Kathryn Grayson are all for battling it through the headlines.

HOLLYWOOD insiders hear George Stevens was offered Dore Schary's post at RKO by boss Howard Hughes, but turned it down. . . One of Broadway's finest young actors, playing in a smash hit, has his hair picked up every week by his dad. The lad is a "soft touch," and papa is protecting him from backstage borrowers.

Playboy Fred Chandler, currently vacationing in South Carolina, made sure Alma Landau, the red-headed Barbizon model, wouldn't forget him while he was away—his last gift before he took the train was a live baby alligator! . . .

Doris Dowling, now in Italy with her sister, Constance, is reported on the verge of marrying a titled Italian. . . Two film stars are backing a fantastic new machine for home use which features a small but very thick record that flashes animated pictures of artists on a screen, with the animation synchronized to the vocalizing on the record.

THE YOUNG BLONDE and beautiful hostess at La Guardia Field who has cover girl aspirations actually calls herself Available Jones. . . Mickey Rooney's newest date is Micky (spelled that way) Crandall. . .

Gag writer Jay Burton says the reports of his switching to press agency aren't true. He still is under contract to Bob Hope, and will go on joke-making. . . Jean McCormack, who pulled Lynn Merrick's hair over a fella last Winter, almost came to blows with Pat Coogan over the affections of handleader Van Smith just before she sailed for Europe. . .

Marion Hutton and Don McGuire are a sultry combination. "Way Of A Fighter," the memoirs of Major General Claire Chennault, will be published in September. Red faces in the Pentagon will result. . .

AN EPIDEMIC of measles has hit the midwest sector. Doctors suspect the origin is children from Europe, so many cases have cropped up in local hotels. . . While Peggy Hopkins Joyce is in Europe she'll try to sell the island she owns off the South of France. . . Frank Sinatra is a neuritis victim. Hopes to bake it out in the Western sun.

THE PREVENTION of attacks is also important. Under the direction of his physician, the patient can learn to cut short an attack at the very beginning, thus avoiding a severe seizure. If he carries an inhaler with him, he is always prepared to breathe in an attack-routing drug mixture.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Back From Panama... Signs Point the Way...

HERBIE'S HOMEWARD BOUND — Sgt. Herbert H. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilson, 229 Berks street, has completed his tour of overseas duty with the US Air Forces in the Panama Canal Zone. So he left earlier this week for the U. S., where he'll receive his discharge. Prior to his enlistment in the air force, Wilson was employed as a line mechanic with Pan American Airlines in Miami, Fla. He arrived in the Canal Zone in July, 1946, was assigned to a weather squadron. . . Corp. Wilson Boone, son of Mrs. Marion Haas, 370 North Charlotte street, has begun training as an aviation engineer in the US Air Forces at Ft. Warren, Wyo.

ACTOR — Kenneth Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Berry, 22 South Hanover street, made his initial appearance on the legitimate stage with the Stover Little theater of Stetson university, DeLand, Fla., this week. He took part in the play "Gallant Lady." Berry is a Sophomore at Stetson, where he is taking a pre-medical course. . . Firestone's far-flung activities reached all the way into New Zealand this week when the first tires ever made there were produced in a recently completed plant. Firestone also has foreign manufacturing plants in Canada, England, Spain, Switzerland, South Africa, India, Brazil, Sweden and Argentina.

TATTLE-TALE — Willard L. Kline, local Bell Telephone manager, says you'll soon be able to tell if your phone conversation is being recorded. For his company has filed tariffs with the Pennsylvania Utility Commission and the Federal Communications Commission, providing for the use of telephone recording devices, effective Monday. A short high "beep" repeated approximately every 15 seconds will indicate to a telephone user that his conversation is being recorded. This "beep" is produced automatically when a recorder is attached and it is unlawful to use any recorder not equipped with this device. The connection of voice recording machines has been authorized provided the "beep" signal is used to let the person at the other end of the line know that the conversation is being recorded.

SIGNS OF THE TIME — Edwin S. Orr, East Ender who is traveling in Canada on his vacation post cards that while passing through Olean, N. Y., he saw "Truman's Lunch Car." "Maybe he is preparing for the worst!" he puns. . . Best sign he observed was just outside of Reading. It announced: "Beans—Blow Horn." . . You had better start right now to get a coat of tan. Research reveals 78 percent of the men prefer to see a tanned rather than a pink and white feminine body in the Summer, while 88 percent of the women questioned agreed a man looks healthier, more virile, stronger if his skin has a bronzed, Summer look.

INSPECTION — Those men you saw flashing a light in the old Victor theater on King street, near Penn, yesterday afternoon merely were inspectors making a routine check. . . Because of all the suicides, sleeping pills will undergo a radical change. The pharmaceutical houses are getting together to create a sedative so you can take a whole bottle of pills without harm. . . A World War II veteran who can't find living quarters for his family tells Pottstown friends he'll pitch his tent right on High street

Oil Company Sued For $33,361 by Bechtelsville Man

Alleged failure of the defendant company to remove its pumps and underground storage tanks forced Forrest Grosser, of Bechtelsville, to withdraw from business because of increased costs which reduced his profits and resulted in his filing a complaint in Berks county court against Penn Service Oil company, of Lancaster avenue, Reading, claiming $33,361.48 damages to his business.

Grosser avers in the petition that because of alleged acts of the defendants, he was unable to obtain gas or oil products from other companies and that this compelled him to quit business. He further charges that the defendant company's acts forced him to go to Marcus Hook to purchase gasoline directly from tankers there.

'New Look' May Produce New Heights In Newspaper Costume Contest Today

Want to beat HOL (high cost of living)?

It's easy. With the cost of clothing at record peaks, Boyertown playground authorities have devised an ingenious method of reducing the clothing budget and at the same time making this reduction doubly profitable by offering prizes at their first annual newspaper costume contest scheduled today at 2 p. m. on Washington school playground.

The rules, excuse, we mean just one rule, is simple: make a costume out of newspapers. The contest is open to boys and girls of all ages and prizes will be awarded to a boy and a girl for the most original costume, the most complete getup and the best dressed.

SO MAKE WITH the scissors and cut chantly lace from your old newspapers, hustle yourself into a bustle with a rustle, give yourself that really "new look" as you clasp the paper clips where the zipper should be, yell, "extreme! extreme!" as you head for Washington school playground today, and win a prize.

A page of Mercury comics will do fine as a fitted bodice while the classified section will make a beautiful skirt. Those are just a few suggestions. Now it's up to you.

Work to Begin Soon On Highway From Baltimore to Capital

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 27 (P) — Gov. William Preston Lane Jr., of Maryland, said today work will begin within a few weeks on the Maryland section of new Baltimore-Harrisburg pike.

The announcement came after Lane and Gov. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania conferred on this and other bi-state projects at a Chesapeake bay meeting here Saturday.

Under joint state plans, the present highway, known as the York road, will be replaced with a four-lane divided highway.

All intersections at grade would be cut to a minimum, providing for only limited access.

Lane said first work will start at Timonium, Md., and proceed northward to the Pennsylvania state line. Plans for the southern section — from Timonium to Baltimore — are being held up pending settlement of an argument as to the route the road will enter Baltimore.

THE STATE roads commission has recommended that it be built through Roland park, taking it through several exclusive residential sections. Many protests by residents have left the route undecided.

As for the Pennsylvania side of the proposed express highway, Lane quoted Duff as saying that he would "do everything I can" in giving you the right kind of access to your state.

In Harrisburg, E. L. Schmidt, Pennsylvania highways department chief engineer, said the Keystone state section will be built starting next year if the legislature provides the money for the multi-million dollar project.

Engineering surveys already are underway to replace the present winding, hilly road running from Harrisburg, through York to the Maryland state line.

Four Invalids Reported Cured at Service In Catholic Celebrations in Quebec

STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE, Que., July 27 (P) — Four reported cures during Roman Catholic rites concluding celebrations of the feast of Saint Anne, will be thoroughly investigated, redemptionist fathers said today.

All four cures, one previously reported, were said to have occurred yesterday in the basilica of this shrine town. The redemptionist fathers are in charge of the sanctuary.

Miss Jeanne Currie of Chatham, N. B., unable to speak for nearly a year, was reported to have begun suddenly to speak with her brother during afternoon services.

JOHN FARRELL of Springfield, Mass., handed to Rev. Louis Philippe Lussier, director of pilgrimages to Saint Anne, a steel support which for many years has aided him in walking. Farrell said after a novena to Saint Anne, he could walk without the support.

Patrick Sullivan of Holyoke, Mass., told redemptionist fathers that a previously paralyzed arm was cured after a pontifical high mass yesterday.

Earlier, Donald Carrier, a Saint Rose, Que., boy, was reported to have taken his first steps in six years. While his mother, Mrs. Lorenzo Carrier, prayed with the boy in her arms at the foot of a statue of Saint Anne, he asked to be put down. Then, she said, he walked. The boy lost use of his legs after an attack of infantile paralysis when he was only 14 months old.

Celebrations of the feast of the church's patron were concluded last night with a candlestick procession inside the basilica.

Kimberlon Autoist Named Defendant In $10,000 Suit

A $10,000 damage suit was filed in Chester county court, West Chester, Monday, as the result of an automobile accident which occurred in Spring City the past March 21.

Mowrey was driving a machine which figured in a collision with a car driven by McDaniels at the intersection of Bridge street and Glass avenue, Spring City.

Vacationing Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR
Of The Mercury

Percival Potts pounded his skull with a rock. He was peevish at his bride. "Why don't you want to go to the mountains? Three reasons why not?" he asked.

"I don't know," she said calmly. "No reasons."

Percival went into an exasperated discourse on women.

"I just don't get it. When I don't want comment from you, you become a constant buzzing in my ear. A year ago you said you'd love, cherish, and obey, but the only time you obey me is when I tell you to do as you please. Bah! Woman—the bitter half. A woman, generally speaking, is generally speaking, except when a man wants reasons."

"Women love men not because they are men, but because they are not women. They know men can't get along without 'em, or with 'em for that matter. Well, you better be careful. A husband is like a car... you've got to take care of him so you won't have to get a new one all the time."

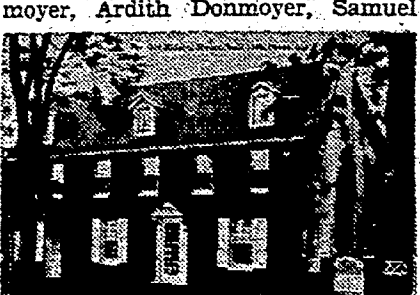

When Percival cooled off he came to realize that do most men, that women are to be loved, not understood. Women may not be much, but they're the best other sex men have.

Percival and his bride went to the seashore.

"My girls and I are having a swell time," said Mrs. Arthur Neiman, and her daughters Shirley, Peggy, and Betty. North Kelm street, who are vacationing at Seaside Park, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Orr, 1038 Queen street, are "having a fine time camping at Blind River, Ontario... this is country with high skies and sky blue waters... just the thing for poetic inspiration... lots of Indians in this section. Only today a black bear gave one of the woman visitors (a Pottstown resident) quite a scare by coming too close to the lake shore where she was fishing... bass, northern pike, catfish, lake trout abound."

Former Pottstonian Buried in Shamokin; Was Crash Victim

Funeral services for John H. Christ, 25, who formerly lived at 1336 High street, were held Monday from his home in Shamokin, according to word received yesterday. Christ, who had been employed by the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, died the past Wednesday at Halloran General hospital, Staten Island, N. Y. He had suffered severe injuries in an automobile accident in Sanatoga the past Sept. 12 when a car in which he was riding overturned, pinning him under the steering wheel.

Taken to the Memorial hospital, he was placed in an oxygen tent and later was moved to the Veterans' hospital, New Castle, and Hahnemann hospital, Philadelphia.

Christ was a veteran of 39 months service, 27 of which was spent overseas. He served in the 101st Airborne division, 506th Regiment.

He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, Pottstown Lodge 369, and the George A. Amole Post #1, of the American Legion.

Among his survivors is his mother, Mrs. Carrie Christ, of Shamokin.

Interment was made in the family plot in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Shamokin.

Ceremonies to Mark Church Expansion

Ground-breaking exercises for a Sunday school addition to the Evansburg Methodist church will be held at 7 o'clock Sunday night, Aug. 8, the Rev. Maris H. Griffiths, 918 High street, pastor, announced yesterday.

The Rev. Walter J. Leppert, executive secretary of the Philadelphia Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Methodist church, will attend the exercises to turn the first spadeful of earth in preparation for the work.

The new Sunday school room will be constructed of cement block covered with white stucco to match the body of the church. It will be built at the rear of the church to serve as a Sunday school room for the children's division and as a social room for the church.

The Rev. Griffiths was appointed pastor of the church in the Summer of 1944. Within a year, plans were made for the financing of the needed Sunday school room. Almost all the necessary funds now are on hand to complete the work and it will be dedicated debt-free.
